(Green Bay, WI) – The sports world turns its attention to the New Orleans, Louisiana area this week with Super Bowl LIX set for Sunday, February 9, 2025 at Caesars Superdome. The Lombardi Trophy is on the line as the Philadelphia Eagles and Kansas City Chiefs square off. It is also THE biggest wagering day of the year in the U.S.

Rose Blozinski, Executive Director of the Wisconsin Council on Problem Gambling (WCPG) says the culmination of the pro football season can be a real challenge for those dealing with an addition to gambling.

“The Super Bowl can be very difficult for those who are problem gamblers,” Blozinski says. “Problem gamblers often look at the big game as a last chance to cover the losses from a long football season. Most of them, however, will only lose more. Our Helpline usually sees an increase in calls right after the Super Bowl.”

Blozinski adds that the impact of the problem goes beyond the money for most problem gamblers. “When problem gamblers reach out for help, they’ve typically lost thousands of dollars with significant impacts on families, friends and even their workplace,” Blozinski says. “We see it often that family members aren’t even aware of the gambling addiction and debt until it’s a very bad situation.”

WCPG is a statewide organization with a mission of educating and promoting public understanding of problem gambling, while maintaining neutrality on the issue of legalized gambling. WCPG operates a Problem Gambling Helpline that is available 24/7 as a resource for anyone facing a gambling problem.
